Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Table of Contents Introduction Preparations before the Interview How to Answer Frequently Asked Questions Apparel and Grooming First Impressionand Language Used What to Carry and What Not To Carry Conclusion Author Bio Publisher Introduction Some people are lucky enough to get several job opportunities in their lifetime. Others are unlucky and get just a few job opportunities. Since you can never be sure of whether you re one of the lucky or unlucky ones, you have to do everything you can to get a good job as soon as an opportunity arises.As soon as there is a vacant position in any firm, an advertisement will be placed on several platforms to invite qualified people to apply to this position. If you applied for the job and were shortlisted as a potential employee, the firm will go ahead and invite you to an interview. The interview will be the single most important determinant of whether you re going to get that job or not. Throughout the world, companies shortlist several candidates before the best one can be selected to fill a vacant position. This means that you won t be the only person being interviewed for that job. It is up to you to convince the interviewer(s) why they should hire you and not any of the other applicants to that position. You have to be highly distinguishable from all the others. There are several things that you can do before, during and after the interview so as to increase the probability of getting that job. Some of the factors that might influence whether you ll get the job include your dressing code and grooming, first impression, qualifications and...
