

We Are All Suspects Now: Untold Stories from Immigrant Communities After 9/11 (Paperback)

By Tram Nguyen

Beacon Press, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. None.. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In an ironic reversal of the American dream, a staggering 20,000 members of the immigrant community of Midwood, Brooklyn (known as Little Pakistan), voluntarily left the United States after 9/11. Tram Nguyen reveals the human cost of the domestic war on terror and examines the impact of post-9/11 policies on people targeted because of immigration status, nationality, race, and religion. Nguyen's evocative narrative reporting—about the families, detainees, local leaders, community advocates, and others living on the front lines—tells the stories of people who witnessed and experienced firsthand the unjust detainment or deportation of family members, friends, and neighbors. Tram Nguyen reveals the human cost of the domestic war on terror and examines the impact of post-9/11 policies on people targeted because of immigration status, nationality, and religion. Nguyen's evocative narrative reporting—about the families, detainees, local leaders, community advocates, and others—is from those living and suffering on the front lines. We meet Mohammad Butt, who died in detention in New Jersey, and the Saleems, who flee Queens for Canada. We even follow a self-proclaimed citizen...
