As to the first cause, the hill of items is, Nelson Gugne, Dr. , --but does not state the name of the creditor. But the declaration alleges a debt due from the defendant to Kessler and (Jo. , according to the account annexed. The bill of items annexed has the same effect as if copied in the body of the declaration. It is equivalent to an allegation that defendant was indebted to Kessler and Co. for the items enumerated in the declaration itself, without an account annexed, and is sufficient. The second ground is without merit. To entitle an assignee to sue in his own name, he must file with his writ the assignment or a copy thereof. R. S. , 1903, c. 84, - 146. It is quite as well to have that assignment in the account as on a...
