Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Education and World Citizenship: An Essay Towards a Science of Education The object of the enquiry described in this book is stated on the title-page and further explained in the opening chapter. It is to attempt, in the light of modern knowledge of physiological psychology, to formulate, however tentatively, a few simple and general principles of education, and so to take a further step towards a science of education. The need, and even the duty, of making this attempt became more and more impressed upon me during eight years of work for the Board of Education and eight following years of work for education in the North of England. The enquiry has been in progress for most of this latter period, and many of the conclusions reached have been applied in practice by the university and the college of which I was then a member. Some of these results have formed the subject of lectures, addresses and papers that have already been printed. The present volume, of which the first draft was finished in July, 1919,...
