THE GARDEN OF THE WORLD.

University of Nevada Press, Reno, 2012. Softcover. Book Condition: New. 216 pages. Softcover. New book. NOVEL. California's Santa Clara Valley was once home to a vigorous wine industry. The Garden of the World is the tale of a pioneer winemaking family headed by Paul Tourneau, a fiercely ambitious vintner determined to make the finest wines in California. His plans are disrupted by a phylloxera epidemic at the beginning of the twentieth century, the trials of national Prohibition, and the bitter alienation of his older son. Played out against the vividly depicted seasonal rhythms of vineyard life, this is a moving saga of betrayal, loss, and the harsh consequences of unbreakable ambition. Lawrence Coates is professor of creative writing at Bowling Green State University. He has published three previous novels, all set in Northern California: The Blossom Festival, The Master of Monterey, and The Garden of the World. Coates has received the Miami University Press Novella Prize, the Western States Book Award for Fiction, the Nancy Dasher Award, the Barthelme Prize for Short Prose, and a National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship. "Another novel by Lawrence Coates so magical, aching, and complete that once begun I could not turn away. There is a tenderness and dignity in these pages that make me realize this is the writing I long for." -Robert Olmstead, author of Far Bright Star "Lawrence Coates knows California's Santa Clara Valley, its history, and the history of its once-great wine industry, and it permeates every page of his new novel. In The Garden of the World he has created a complex and beautiful story." - Charles Sullivan, author of A Companion to California Wine: An Encyclopedia of Wine and Winemaking from the Mission Period to the Present "Coates is one of a handful of contemporary American novelists who...
