MEMORIES OF A LONG LIFE IN VIRGINIA (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Memories of a Long Life in Virginia The writer of these pages is now nearly eighty years old. She has been an unusually close and intelligent observer, and her memory is wonderfully vivid and accurate. She is one of the few people now living who knew well Stonewall Jackson before the War between the States, and General Robert E. Lee, and his family, when General Lee lived in Lexington after the war, as president of Washington College. Some of the friends of Mrs. Moore have thought that her recollection of these great men, and of other prominent people and events, were worthy of a permanent record, and at the insistence of these friends, this little book has been written. It is printed just as dictated by her, without editing, and it will doubtless be found that her original, and at times quaint style, will add much to the interest and attractiveness of the narrative. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy.
